

Woodbury 250th America Celebration & Leroy Anderson Tribute

Imperial Brass Band

Imperial Brass Band

Woodbury 250th America Celebration
& Leroy Anderson Tribute
Saturday, May 2, 2026 / 3:00 pm
Nonnewaug High School Auditorium
Woodbury, Connecticut

The Imperial Brass Band has been delighting audiences around New Jersey for 35 years. Originally founded as the Rutgers Alumni Brass Band by alumni Steve Dillon and Jon Korzun with arranger Mark Freeh, the band gave its first concert in April, 1991. Since then, Imperial Brass has presented highly entertaining programs that include traditional brass band literature, classical arrangements, popular music and more. The 30-member Imperial Brass is conducted by Ronald Waiksnoris.

Program

Woodbury Fanfare	Leroy Anderson
Olympic Fanfare and Theme	James Curnow
Belle of the Ball	Leroy Anderson
Bugler's Holiday	Leroy Anderson
Forgotten Dreams	Leroy Anderson
Promenade	Leroy Anderson
Overture to the Opera "Zampa"	L.J. Ferdinand Hérold

Intermission

Imperial March	John Williams
Trombone Vespers	Ray Steadman-Allen
Jurassic Park	John Williams
Americana	Martin Corder

This free concert is made possible by support from the Town of Woodbury and the Leroy Anderson Foundation.